Enrolled Companies List for the Thermal Energy Storage (TES) Program

This list consists of companies that have completed an Austin Energy TES orientation session and have been prequalified to perform feasibility studies qualifying TES systems for rebates. This list does not represent an endorsement by Austin Energy of any product, service, individual, or company. Austin Energy offers no work guarantee or warranty expressed or implied, as to the quality, cost, or effectiveness of the work performed by consultants, contractors, their employees or subcontractors. Austin Energy recommends solicitation of input from more than one professional. Always ask for and follow-up on references.
